

Digital Missionary Spotlight

On January 7th the New Salem Worship Line was launched. The New Worship line is a platform in the Communications ministry where people can listen on the phone to our worship service. Since its inception, more than 80 callers who are homebound due to illness, work or who do not have computer access was able to connect to the worship service via the line. During the creation of the worship line, the need for monthly hosts was discovered as an added touch for those who call in to be greeted by a live person. The primary lead to the ministry is Sis. Paula Carmichael, long time member of New Salem and God Ordained Care Group. Paula had served in the Voices of New Salem until she was not able to make it to in person services. So instead of just watching virtually, she decided to find a way to continue to serve in ministry to honor God with her gifts of service. Paula rejoices with those on the line when callers are praising God over the phone, when they want prayer and assist them when they want to give their tithes and offerings. Here is Paula's testimony on her experience serving on the worship line: "I feel blessed that I am able to serve those who have limited capabilities for whatever reason. [This is a] phone service for those who do not have streaming services available or who are shut in. For whatever reason! It is an honor, Praise God!" To serve as a digital missionary host on the worship line, contact Dr. Monica Lowe, director of communications at mlowe@newsalemcare.com or 614 930-2242. Note: Monthly commitment, one
