New Salem is blessed to have a few of our members honored by Who's Who in Black Columbus on November 21st, Brother Adam Troy and Brother Charles Tennant Sr . Troy serves as director of Missions and executive director of Community of Caring Development Foundation (CCDF), a separate 501c3 of the Church and founder of the Africentric Early College. Within the Mission's department, Troy leads teams in the Bread of Life Food Pantry, Saints on Streets (SOS) and the Social Justice Ministry. The Mission's department just completed the Holiday Box Giveaway on Nov. 16th. As executive director of CCDF, he is responsible for the Linden Fresh Market, Sports Leadership Academy, Leadership Linden and Linden 100. Brother Charles E. Tennant Sr, a 30 year member of New Salem and spotlight at the Who's Who event has also received the Educator of the Century award. Tennant says his great joy is not about the awards, but the graduation rate of 95% of African American students receiving their diploma. See more about Bro. Tennant Sr. in the link below.

Other honorees listed here are Dr. Annette Jackson, Bro. Rob Smith and Bro. Marion Meadows . Congratulations to you and other New Salem members who received this prestigious award.

New Salem Hospitalization Line

This is an important reminder to all New Salem Members. If you need to report a hospitalization or death to the church, download the app. Captional is available to those who are hearing impaired or speak a different language. Captional fosters connection and community by allowing our audience to fully engage and participate during in-person and online worship services by reading what they're missing. So, you will be able to read along as the Pastor is preaching, someone is praying and more on your phone, tablet or computer. If you have additional questions, contact Rev. Dr. Monica Lowe, director of communications at mlowe@newsalemcares.com or call her at 614-930-2242.

please call 614 554-6417 or email crt@newsalemcares.com.
