

Women's History Month

Editor's Note: Welcome to Women's History Month. During the month of March, the Enewsletter will feature various women and Women Ministry opportunities within New Salem.

Recap of McClain-Walters The Deborah Anointing

To kick off Women's History Month, we decided to focus on a dynamic woman of God found in the book of Judges in the Old Testament, Deborah. Author Michelle McClain-Walters, spotlights Judge Deborah and her journey in being obedient to God in the book The Deborah Anointing. The first Chapter is Embracing the Call to be a Woman of Power and Influence. The God Ordained (GO!) Care Group is currently studying this powerful book which confirms that every Woman of God has an assignment. Whether you are on your job, retired, in school, no matter where you are in your relationship with Jesus Christ and sojourn in ministry, God has an assignment for you. The women of God Ordained Care Group has written their take-a-ways on how this book and especially Judge Deborah's assignment is relevant for all Women.

The study on Michelle McClain-Walter's "The Deborah Anointing" take a-way for me revealed – the task ahead for the modern-day woman and her relationship with God must be fueled by a lifestyle of worship and praise / praise worship, resulting in jubilation of the highest order. Through this state of being connected with GOD the modern-day Deborah gains strategy in pursuit of her role as an intercessor, the bridge [standing in the gap] between God and people [that one person] on the walk-through life's twists and turns – offering an encouraging word from our LORD, a hopeful prayer that embraces and lifts the spirit or that shoulder or hug from a helpmate in time of need. During a time of “the new normal” the modern-day Deborah must assume a posture of prayer, asking God to intervene on behalf of another, as they go through the valley. By Bonita C. Richardson, member of God Ordained Care Group

*Shake yourself from the dust; arise, O captive Jerusalem Loose yourself from the bonds of your neck, O captive daughter of Zion.
___ Isaiah 52:2*
