Holding to God's Unchanging Hands!

By: Min. Melody Bogan

Many of us reeled from the news that funding for the most vulnerable in our nation will inevitably be stripped away. For those of us living with a disability or caring for someone living with one, we recoiled at the thought that such inhumanity would prevail. We, the believers in Christ Jesus, are reminded that "we wrestle not against flesh and blood" (Ephesians 6:12, KJV) and regardless of people's political affiliations, we set our hope and faith on the author and finisher of our faith. We belong to God, and though tough news banners occupy our television and cell phone screens, THE WORD still stands. God is with us in the "swift transitions" so we steady our minds, catch our breath, and hold to God's unchanging hand; (from hymn, "Hold To God's Unchanging Hand" sung during our (Out of Box Worship Service, July 6, 2025).

God is not surprised by man's failing, nor man's inability to consider the plights of the vulnerable, the widowed, the orphaned, the foreigner, the disabled. Due to our selfish nature, we often look out for ourselves, heartlessly ignoring the needs of our fellow humans. And when we come to Christ, we are transformed from ME-CENTERED to WE-

CENTERED. We desire to help, share, and model love as Christ has demonstrated for us. Please join me as you read this and hum this timeless hymn with me. As Pastor Troy says, "Let that get in your spirit"; When we allow the words of that song to encourage our hearts on the toughest days, our hearts will surely be encouraged. Our ancestors endured much worse and had less, yet they taught us to survive and stay the course. We will do the same!

PRAYER: LORD, we cling to your hand. You will never let us go. You care for us and are aware of the trials we face. Save us from those who seek to harm and oppress the marginalized. Forgive our sins and love us through our faith bouts when we lose hope. Restore us today, we pray, in Jesus' name. AMEN.

T. MATTHEW 8

Go thy way; and as thou believest, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was the selfsame hour.

And when Jesus was come to Peter's house, he saw his mother laid, and sick of the fever.

And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she rose up and ministered unto him.

Then the even was come, and all the city were gathered together unto him, because they were all diseased.

And he healed many that were diseased, and all that were possessed with devils.

And it might be fulfilled as spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself did he take our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

Now when Jesus saw multitudes about him, he commanded to depart to the other side.

And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou shalt go.

And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me to go and bury my father.

And Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead.

And when he was entered into the ship, his disciples followed him.

And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was upon the cypress tree, and the ship was broken in pieces.

And his disciples came to him, and said, We perished.

And he said unto them, O ye of little faith, wherefore ye feared?

Then he arose, and the winds and the sea were calmed.

And the disciples worshipped him, saying, Thou art God's Son.

And Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, Whosoever will take up his cross and follow me, he will save himself and his soul.

For whosoever will save his life, he will lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake, he will save it.

For the Son of man Son of man must be so delivered, and be killed, and be raised again.

And whosoever will take up his cross and follow me, he will be like unto the Son of man.

Whoever therefore will be first, he shall be last; and whoever will be last, he shall be first.

For the Son of man Son of man must be so delivered, and be killed, and be raised again.

And whosoever will take up his cross and follow me, he will be like unto the Son of man.

Whoever therefore will be first, he shall be last; and whoever will be last, he shall be first.

The Bible Sampler Series registration for August/September in Person is now open. Please scan that QR code or click on the link below register. The classes are the Book of Haggai.

The Book of Haggai- After 70 years in captivity, Israel returned home and was suppose to rebuild the temple but got distracted. The foundation was laid but then construction was halted. The Lord sent the prophet Haggai to encourage the people to consider their ways and encourage them to be strong and work. Registrants will engage in the two chapters of this book and learn lessons of how today we can engage in ministry.

Tools needed: Bible (physical or App)

Instructor: Deacon Rossi Taylor

The Book of Haggai

Bait of Offense- Do you or someone you know often take things personal or "feel some kind of way" about a situation? Have you ever been betrayed or felt it? If you answered yes then you may have been offended. Luke 17:1 says, "it is impossible that no offenses should come". Our response to offense determines our future (John Bevere). Offenses have become major obstacles in many believers' lives. The only thing we should take personal is our relationship with Jesus Christ. The goal of this class is to help us walk in victory and maintain healthy relationships with others.

Tools needed: Bible and Book, by John Bevere. Registrants will get more details on book and interactive guide.

Instructor: Rev. Dr. Monica Lowe

Deadline to register of Bible Sampler is July 27th.
